Florida Chamber of Commerce Endorses Pam Bondi In the Republican Primary for Florida Attorney General

TALLAHASSEE, FL (July 29, 2010) – The Florida Chamber of Commerce endorsed Pam Bondi today in the Republican primary race for Attorney General of Florida. The endorsement reflects the Florida Chamber's belief in Bondi's common-sense approach to law enforcement, consumer protection, and upholding Florida's constitution.

"Pam Bondi's nearly two decades of courtroom experience makes her the best prepared candidate for Attorney General," said Mark Wilson, President and CEO of the Florida Chamber. "Her years as a prosecutor and unshakeable pro-business convictions provide her the tools she needs to excel as Florida's top law enforcement officer."

"I'm extremely honored to be supported by the Florida Chamber in this campaign," said Pam Bondi. "I am focused on protecting Floridians from an over-reaching federal government and ensuring that our communities are safe so that our businesses can prosper. Florida's next Attorney General will play a significant role in ongoing efforts toward economic recovery and in sustaining a healthy business climate in the years to come."

The Florida Chamber believes Pam Bondi's years of experience will serve the state well in confronting the challenges that are ahead for Florida.

"As a fourth generation Floridian, we know Pam Bondi is someone who will put Florida first," Wilson added. "We know she is a woman of strong beliefs and clear-headed sensibility who will uphold the law and defend the rights of Florida businesses and consumers. That is why the Florida Chamber of Commerce proudly endorses Pam Bondi."

As the leading voice of business, today's endorsement allows the Florida Chamber to encourage its 139,000-member businesses and organizations to pledge their support to Pam Bondi for Attorney General of Florida.
