

INFRASTRUCTURE AND ASSETS

TRANSPORTATION FORUM

DECEMBER 6, 2016

ROB PALMER, AICP CTL (RS&H)

CHAIR, FLORIDA TRADE & LOGISTICS INSTITUTE

POSITION STATEMENT

From Innovation to Transformation

Will our future transportation system evolve and retain the same stakeholders or are we looking at a new era, where new technologies and stakeholders act as catalyst for dramatic change?

What are the Economic development opportunities?

- John Kaliski, Principal, Cambridge Systematics
- Syd Kitson, Chairman & CEO, Kitson & Partners

RAIL/INTERSTATE INFRASTRUCTURE

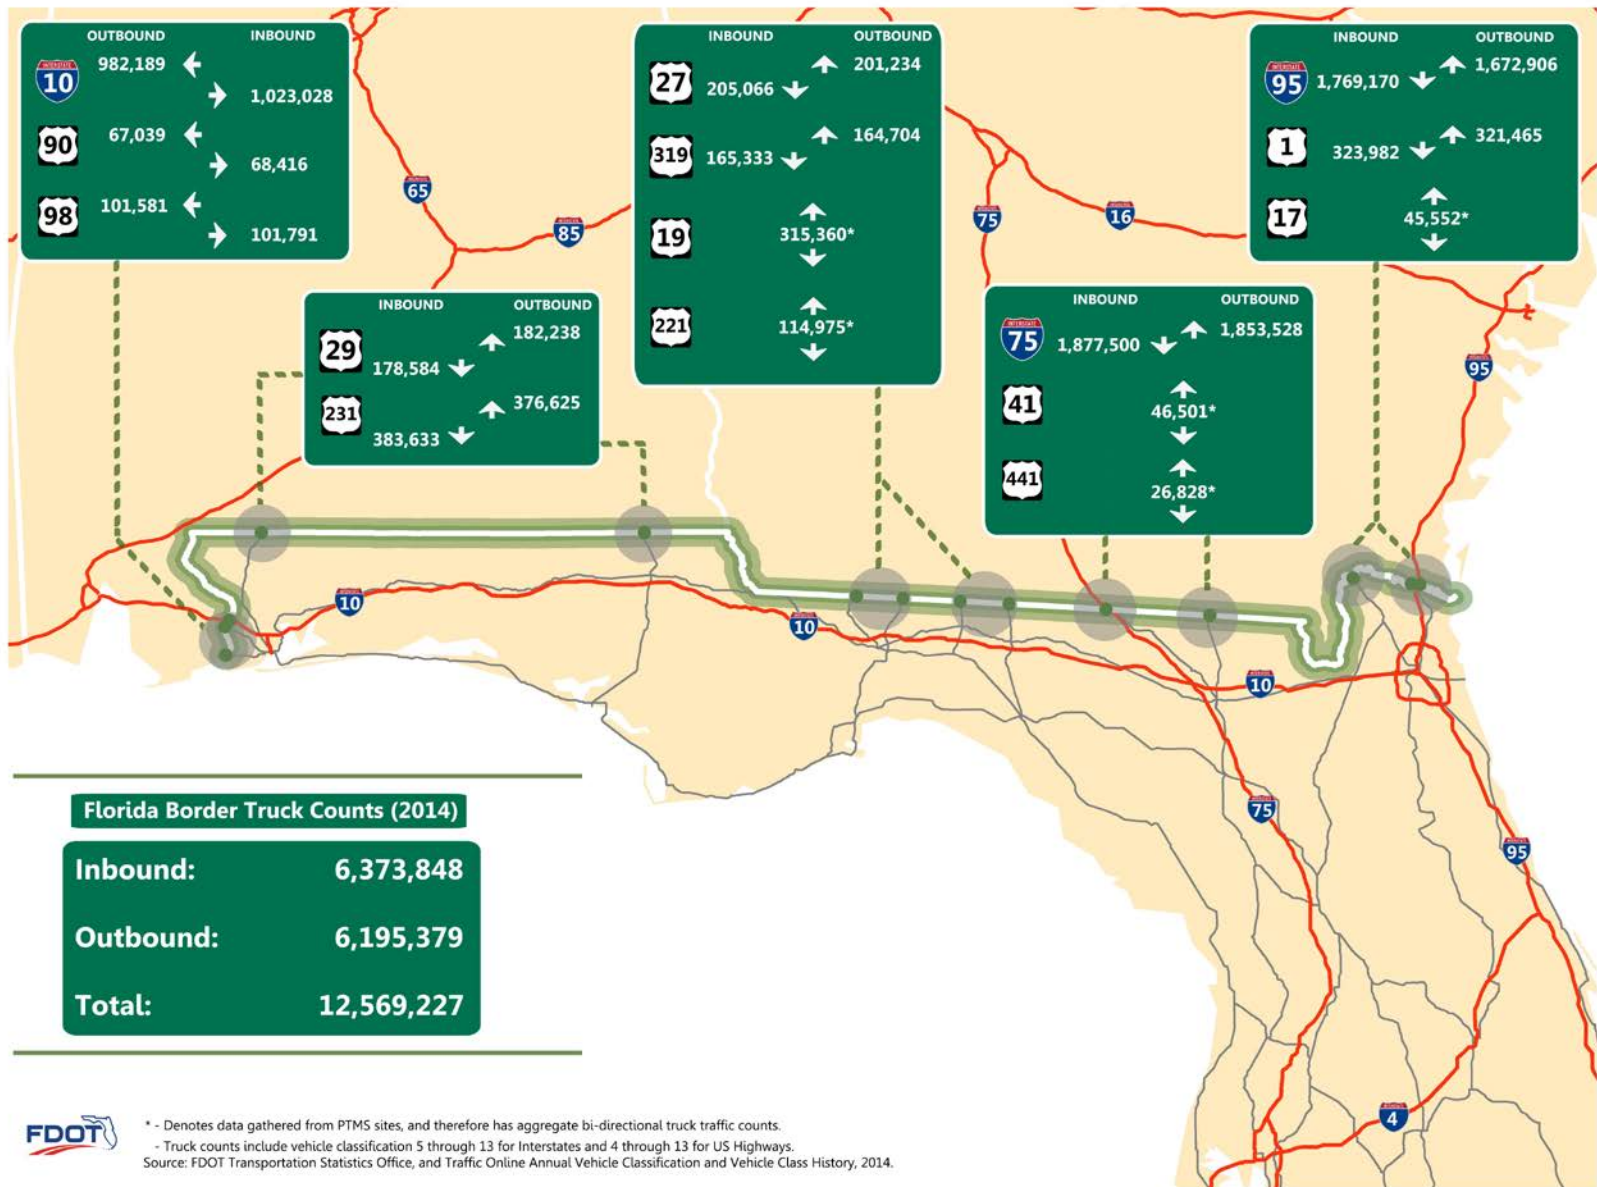

FLORIDA STATE LINE TRUCK COUNTS

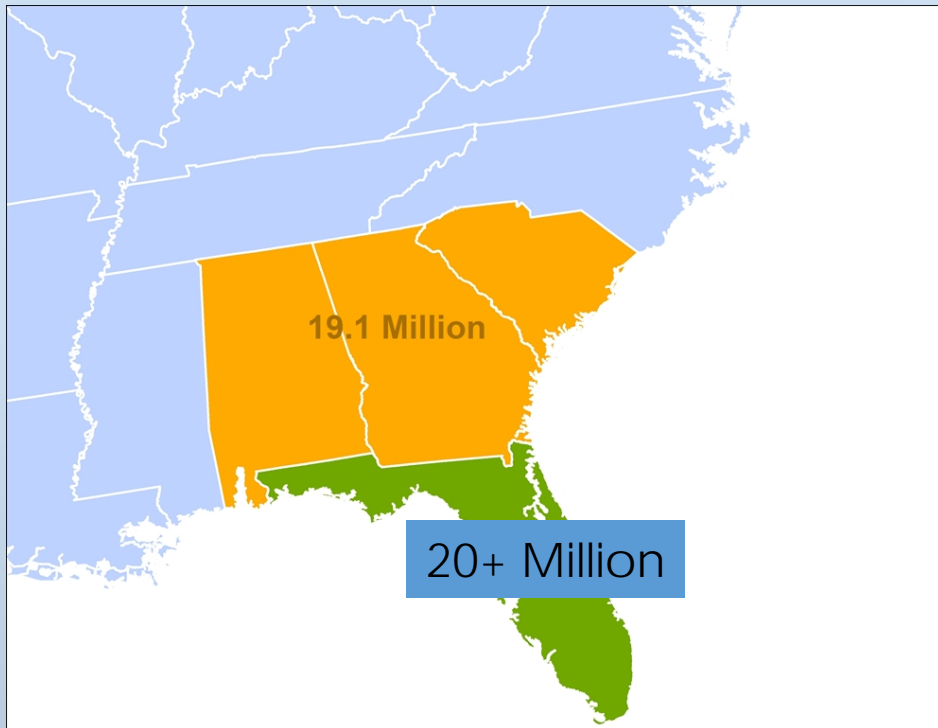

FLORIDA STATE LINE TRUCK COUNTS | Total annual truck count for the Florida
2008-2014 (in millions)

FLORIDA STATE LINE TRUCK TRAFFIC COUNTS

WHY DOES THIS MATTER?

50m of the 105m visitors drive to Florida – along Interstates!

Baby Boomers and Millennials both want to live here, and actually want similar life styles (urban & no cars)

Are we ready to handle the transportation needs of those with money, and those who will make it by 2030?

2030 – A BLANK CANVAS OR MUCH OF THE SAME?

WE NEED TO DEFINE IT, BUILD IT, MAINTAIN IT